Put on their hats
and go for a stroll.

Noel goes ahead
and just runs around,

Then calls them both over to see what he's found.

Two eyes and two ears,
a mouth and nose, too.

And yet from the cold
it's turning bright blue.

Steve pulls the front end
and Col does the back,

While Noel, thinking quickly, gets tea from the pack.

Now he is warm
and standing up tall,

Keith the giraffe
is bigger than all.

Noel wants to keep him,
because he's no trouble,

But to get in the shop
Keith has to bend double.

Keith wants to help,
but doesn't like kneeling,

So Steve takes a saw and cuts up the ceiling.

Keith tries so hard,
but as high as he stands,

The main problem is giraffes have no hands.

So they show him the north and wave their goodbyes.

Then turn and go home, a tear in their eyes.
